My opinion is that towns should pay for their Water-Supplies & should raise loans for the purpose, & if necessary impose an extra tax to meet the annual interest on such loan, as well as sufficient sum annually to form a Sinking fund for renewals ~~and~~ and additions to the plant

I do not think the municipality should in fairness be called upon to pay for the Jewell filters. These filters are not an urgent necessity & the undertaking to construct them has been made by the Govt without previously consulting the municipality. I think the whole charge should be borne by the Govt

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

P.W Department.

Read:-

1. Note dated the 6th June 1907 by the Secretary to Govt in the P.W.Department, submitting copy of the Proceedings of the Committee, assembled at the Residency on the 9th May last, to discuss the question of the site for the proposed combined Jewell Filter Installation for the Water supply to Bangalore, together with a project amounting to Rs 1,85,000/- for the construction of the Installation at Yesvantapur for the combined water supply to the -- City and to the Civil and Military Station at Bangalore

2 P W.Department Secretary's Note dated the 15th June 1907, furnishing further particulars giving the respective costs of the annual maintenance of the present sand filters and of the proposed Jewell Filters

Order thereon No 993-5/7211-3 dated Bangalore10th October 1907

The question of erecting a combined Jewell Filter Installation for Bangalore City and for the Civil and Military Station Water supply has long been under correspondence, and the Government of His Highness the Maharaja now sanction the project amounting to Rs 1,85,000 submitted by the Chief Engineer, for erecting the JewellFilter Installation for the combined water supplies to the City and the Civil Military Station

II The Government are unable to find funds for this work during the current year, and therefore direct that

that provision be made for their share of the cost in next year's P W Budget. But if the Civil and Military Station Authorities desire the work to be started this year, the sum of Rs 70,000/- already deposited with the Durbar for the project can be utilized for the work, and provision made in next year's budget for the Durbar's share of the cost together with the balance of the share of cost to be borne by the Civil and Military Station

III The question whether the City Municipality should be asked to share the cost of the work will be considered in due course

IV In connection with the installation and operation of the Jewell Filters referred to, the Government convey their approval to the draft agreement to be entered into with the Government of India as now modified
